Some decades ago, career choices were not at all a difficult task and students went from one class to another without giving a thought as to what they would do in future and what kind of job they would pursue.

Graduation meant the certainty of securing a job. But, today, the situation is not the same and students have to strive hard to get into various courses and colleges and perform excellent in their studies in order to be able to get a job. There are many factors, which student needs to keep in mind while planning a career. One needs to understand why it is so important to plan a career.

Unlike the past, today jobs are specialized and therefore, specialized training needs to be taken. For example, 10 years back, a student who had completed graduation with a first class would get a job in a bar easily ; today, there are students who have done specialization in financial management. A person with specialized knowledge would definitely be preferred over somebody who has just completed graduation.

Now a days, new opportunities are coming up every single day, old job skills are becoming redundant. For example, stenography, computers have overtaken that.

Globalization has increased the standards of education and career profiles. Therefore, students have higher standards to adhere to. Studies in foreign lands are more accessible today and preference is almost given to students who are trained according to international standards. Multinational companies are opening in India and are looking for well trained employable individuals.

- b) Write a well organized passage on the following topic using the points given below it: [8]

points : Morning walk — a pleasant experience — fresh air — pure air — you start early — see different sights — cattle grazing — farmers going to field — women drawing water from well — flowers — their fragrance — birds flying — different sounds — birds singing — peaceful — walking good exercise — you feel cheerful and fresh.
